

Pignanera in amphora

A special blend of grapes (50% Aglianico, 50% Montepulciano) is reserved for vinification and aging in 400-liter amphorae, and then stored in small 1-liter amphorae, with a limited release of only 125 pieces. It has a deep ruby red color with slight garnet reflections. On the nose, it is intense and elegant, exhibiting fruity, spicy, and balsamic aromas reminiscent of wild red berries, black cherry, licorice, cocoa, and lightly smoked hints. Excellent structure and elegance on the palate, with balanced tannins and a long, spicy finish.

Description

Pignanera shows a deep ruby red color with light garnet reflections. On the nose it is intense and elegant. You can notice fruity, spicy and balsamic aromas, reminiscent of red berries, black cherry, licorice, cocoa and slightly smoky hints. Excellent structure and elegance on the palate, with balanced tannins and a long and spicy finish. We recommend decanting it to obtain its maximum expression. An important red, which pairs well with fatty meats, game, grilled beef and spicy cheeses. Our ideal pairing is with braised beef with red wine reduction.
